

40 C.F.R. § 610.35

Driveability and performance tests.

If the Administrator determines that driveability and performance of a vehicle may be adversely affected by the use of a device, a number of automobiles to be determined by the Administrator will be subjected to the driveability and performance tests discussed in §§ 610.62 and 610.63, respectively.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login