

40 C.F.R. § 704.5

Exemptions.

A person who is subject to reporting requirements for a substance identified in this part is exempt from those requirements to the extent that the person and that person's use of the substance is described in this section. This section is superseded by any TSCA section 8(a) rule that adds to, removes, or revises the exemptions described in this section.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login