

40 C.F.R. § 716.50

Reporting physical and chemical properties.

Studies of physical and chemical properties must be reported under this subpart if performed for the purpose of determining the environmental or biological fate of a substance, and only if they investigated one or more of the following properties:

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login