

40 C.F.R. § 725.422

Physical containment and control technologies.

The manufacturer must meet all of the following criteria for physical containment and control technologies for any facility in which the new microorganism will be used for a Tier I exemption; these criteria also serve as guidance for a Tier II exemption.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login