

40 C.F.R. § 281.39

Operator training.

In order to be considered no less stringent than the corresponding federal requirements for operator training, the state must have an operator training program that meets the minimum requirements of section 9010 of the Solid Waste Disposal Act.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login