

40 C.F.R. § 466.10

Applicability; description of the steel basis material.

This subpart applies to discharges to waters of the United States, and introduction of pollutants into publicly owned treatment works from porcelain enameling on steel basis materials.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login