

40 C.F.R. § 246.201-5

Recommended procedures: Methods of separation and collection.

Following separation within the home, any of the following methods of collection may be used:

- (a) Materials may be placed at the curbside by the resident and may be collected from each household using separate trucks or compartmentalized vehicles.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login