

40 C.F.R. § 86.1925

What records must I keep?

- (a) Organize and maintain your records as described in this section. We may review your records at any time, so it is important to keep required information readily available.
- (b) Keep the following paper or electronic records of your in-use testing for five years after you complete all the testing required for an engine family:

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login