

40 C.F.R. § 86.404-78

Section numbering.

- (a) The year of initial applicability of a section is indicated by its section number. The two digits following the hyphen designate the first model year for which a section is effective. A section remains effective until superseded.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login