

40 C.F.R. § 97.84

---

Opt-in process.

---

The permitting authority will issue or deny an initial NO<sub>x</sub> Budget opt-in permit for a unit for which an application for a NO<sub>x</sub> Budget opt-in permit under § 97.83 is submitted, in accordance with § 97.20 and the following:

- (a) Interim review of monitoring plan. The Administrator will determine, on an interim basis, the sufficiency of the monitoring plan accompanying the initial application for a NO<sub>x</sub> Budget opt-in permit under § 97.83. A monitoring plan is sufficient, for purposes of interim review, if the plan appears to contain information demonstrating that the NO<sub>x</sub> emissions rate and heat input rate of the unit are monitored and reported in accordance with subpart H of this part. A determination of sufficiency shall not be construed as acceptance or approval of the unit's monitoring plan.
