

40 C.F.R. § 98.310

Definition of the source category.

The titanium dioxide production source category consists of facilities that use the chloride process to produce titanium dioxide.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login