

40 C.F.R. § 98.80

Definition of the source category.

The cement production source category consists of each kiln and each in-line kiln/raw mill at any portland cement manufacturing facility including alkali bypasses, and includes kilns and in-line kiln/raw mills that burn hazardous waste.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login