

40 C.F.R. § 63.7742

How do I monitor and collect data to demonstrate continuous compliance?

- (a) Except for monitoring malfunctions, associated repairs, and required quality assurance or control activities (including as applicable, calibration checks and required zero and span adjustments), you must monitor continuously (or collect data at all required intervals) any time a source of emissions is operating.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login