

31 C.F.R. § 15.737-12

---

Contents of complaint.

---

- (a) Charges. A complaint shall give a plain and concise description of the allegations which constitute the basis for the proceeding. A complaint shall be deemed sufficient if it fairly informs the respondent of the charges against him/her so that the respondent is able to prepare a defense.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login