

31 C.F.R. § 7.5

Responsibilities of employees.

All employees are required to report to the heads of their bureaus or offices any result of research, development, or other activity on their part which may constitute an invention and the circumstances under which this possible invention came into being.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login