

31 C.F.R. § 9.8

Emergency action.

In emergency situations or when in his judgment national security interests require it, the Secretary may vary or dispense with any of the procedures set forth above and may formulate his views without following such procedures.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login