COSMOS
Navigate the Compliance Universe

CEP Magazine - May 2019
That's how we do things...where?

By Sally March

Sally March (sjmarch10@gmail.com) is Director, Drummond March & Co, in London, UK.

At first blush, it looked like Goldman Sachs was going to use the "rogue employee" defense when the corruption with the Malaysian state investment fund, 1MDB, emerged. Goldman Sachs raised $6.5 billion from bond issues for 1MDB between 2012 and 2013 and was paid nearly $600 million in fees on the bond deals. It has since emerged that the investment fund was used as a personal piggybank by the former prime minister and people close to him.

This document is only available to members. Please log in or become a member.

Become a Member Login

Copyright © 2024 by Society of Corporate Compliance and Ethics (SCCE) & Health Care Compliance Association (HCCA). No claim to original US Government works. All rights reserved. Usage is governed under this website's Terms of Use.