

Report on Supply Chain Compliance Volume 2, Number 8. May 02, 2019

KnowTheChain releases report on human trafficking and modern slavery

By Sascha Matuszak

The report, “Three Sectors, Three years later: Progress and Gaps in the Fight Against Forced Labor,” evaluates 119 companies in three high-risk areas: information technology, food and beverage, and apparel and footwear. According to the report, the overall score was low (33 out of 100) despite improvements by the majority of the companies evaluated in 2016 and 2018.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login