

CEP Magazine – August 2018 Be smart in an interview, but don't outsmart yourself

by Meric Craig Bloch, CCEP-F, CFE, PCI, LPI

Meric Craig Bloch (mbloch@shrinenet.org) is Corporate Director, Investigations for Shriners Hospitals for Children. He has conducted over 400 workplace investigations of fraud and serious workplace misconduct, and is an author and a frequent public speaker on the workplace investigations process.

- twitter.com/fraudinvestig8r

The goal of any investigation is to learn the true facts of the matter. In most compliance investigations, the information on which you rely will come from interviews. And the success of each interview depends on the quality of the information you receive.

This document is only available to members. Please log in or become a member.

Become a Member Login