
29 C.F.R. § 102.157

Definitions.

- (a) The term administrative offset means the withholding of money payable by the United States to, or held by the United States on behalf of, a person to satisfy a debt owed the United States by that person.
- (b) The term debtor is any person against whom the Board has a claim.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login