
29 C.F.R. § 15.200

What is a claim under the MPCECA and who may file such a claim?

- (a) A claim under the MPCECA for damage or loss is allowable only if the property involved was being used incident to service with the Department.
- (b) A claim may be made under this subpart by an employee of the Department or by a spouse or authorized agent, or legal representative on behalf of the employee. If the employee is deceased, the claim may be filed by a survivor in the following order of preference: Spouse, children, parent, brother or sister or the authorized agent or legal representative of such person or persons.
