

29 C.F.R. § 17.6

What procedures apply to the selection of programs and activities under these regulations?

- (a) A state may select any program or activity published in the Federal Register in accordance with § 17.3 of this part for intergovernmental review under these regulations. Each state, before selecting programs and activities shall consult with local elected officials.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login