

29 C.F.R. § 18.1003

Admissibility of duplicates.

A duplicate is admissible to the same extent as an original unless a genuine question is raised as to the authenticity of the original, or in the circumstances it would be unfair to admit the duplicate in lieu of the original.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login