

29 C.F.R. § 18.91

Post-hearing brief.

The judge may grant a party time to file a post-hearing brief with proposed findings of fact, conclusions of law, and the specific relief sought. The brief must refer to all portions of the record and authorities relied upon in support of each assertion.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login