

29 C.F.R. § 20.109

Prior provision of rights with respect to debt.

To the extent that the rights of the debtor in relation to the same debt have been previously provided under some other statutory or regulatory authority, the Department is not required to duplicate those efforts before referring a debt for tax refund offset.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login