

29 C.F.R. § 29.4

Criteria for apprenticeable occupations.

An apprenticeable occupation is one which is specified by industry and which must:

- (a) Involve skills that are customarily learned in a practical way through a structured, systematic program of on-the-job supervised learning;

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login