

29 C.F.R. § 452.133

Election of delegates not members of the labor organization.

A labor organization's constitution and bylaws may authorize the election of delegates who are not members of the subordinate labor organization they represent, provided the members of the subordinate organization are also eligible to be candidates.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login