

29 C.F.R. § 8.9

Disposition by the Administrative Review Board.

- (a) The Board may decline review of any case whenever in its judgment review would be inappropriate because of lack of timeliness, the nature of the relief sought, the case involves only settled issues of law, the appeal is frivolous on its face, or other reasons. A case will be reviewed upon the affirmative vote of one member.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login