

29 C.F.R. § 1201.2

Exceptions.

- (a) The term “carrier” shall not include any street, interurban, or suburban electric railway, unless such railway is operating as a part of a general steam-railroad system of transportation, but shall not exclude any part of the general steam-railroad system of transportation now or hereafter operated by any other motive power.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login