

29 C.F.R. § 780.217

Forestry activities.

Operations in a forest tree nursery such as seeding new beds and growing and transplanting forest seedlings are not farming operations. For such operations to fall within sec. 3(f), they must qualify under the second part of the definition dealing with incidental practices. See § 780.201.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login