

29 C.F.R. § 1919.25

Limitations on use of chains.

Chains forming a part of vessel's cargo gear shall not be used when, due to stretch, the increase of length of a measured section exceeds five percent, when a link is damaged, or when other external defects are evident. Chains shall not be shortened by bolting, wiring, or knotting.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login