

CEP Magazine – August 2019 Argentina finalizes chemical management bill

---

By Sascha Matuszak

The Argentinian government has finalized a draft bill for creating an inventory of chemical substances and their risk.

According to the draft, companies will have three years to comply with regulations, once the government's reporting mechanism is in place. Companies will be required to disclose:

This document is only available to members. Please log in or become a member.

Become a Member Login