Secretary's evaluations of agency occupational safety and health programs.

- (a) In accordance with section 1-401(h), the Secretary shall develop a comprehensive program for evaluating an agency's occupational safety and health program. To accomplish this, the Secretary shall conduct:
- (1) A complete and extensive evaluation of all elements of an agency's occupational safety and health program on a regular basis;
  - (2) Special studies of limited areas of an agency's occupational safety and health program as deemed necessary by the Secretary; and
  - (3) Field reviews and scheduled inspections of agency workplaces as deemed necessary by the Secretary.
