

29 C.F.R. § 4003.7

---

Exhaustion of administrative remedies.

---

Except as provided in § 4003.22(b), a person aggrieved by an initial determination of PBGC covered by this part, other than an initial determination subject to reconsideration that is issued by a Department Director, has not exhausted his or her administrative remedies until he or she has filed a request for reconsideration under subpart C of this part or an appeal under subpart D of this part, whichever is applicable, and a decision granting or denying the relief requested has been issued.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login