

Report on Medicare Compliance Volume 28, Number 28. August 05, 2019 Proposed Regulation: How Revalued Codes Would Affect Payment

In the proposed 2020 Medicare Physician Fee Schedule regulation, CMS incorporates the revalued payments adopted by the American Medical Association's CPT Editorial Panel. The table shows the percent increase in office visit work relative value units between 2019 and the proposed 2021 values, says attorney Richelle Marting, with the Forbes Law Group in Overland Park, Kansas, and shows a comparison of how national payment rates for those same codes are affected by the increases. Contact her at rmarting@forbeslawgroup.com.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login