

Report on Supply Chain Compliance Volume 2, Number 15. August 15, 2019

Malaysian authorities file charges against Goldman Sachs employees

By Sascha Matuszak

The charges against 17 current and former Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. employees is the latest development in a long saga involving the 1Malaysia Development Berhad (1MDB) development bank. Authorities in Malaysia, Singapore, Switzerland and the U.S. have gotten involved in a case involving high-level corruption and billions of U.S. dollars in stolen funds.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login