

45 C.F.R. § 260.76

What special rules apply to States that are continuing evaluations of their waiver demonstrations?

If a State is continuing research that employs an experimental design in order to complete an impact evaluation of a waiver demonstration, the experimental and control groups may continue to be subject to prior AFDC law, except as modified by the waiver.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login