

45 C.F.R. § 287.30

If an eligible consortium breaks up, what happens to the NEW Program grant?

- (a) If a consortium should break up or any Tribe withdraws from a consortium, it will be necessary to allocate unobligated funds and future grants among the Tribes that were members of the consortium, if each individual Tribe obtains ACF approval to continue to operate a NEW Program.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login