

45 C.F.R. § 1149.30

How are the functions of the ALJ separated from those of the investigating official and the reviewing official?

- (a) The investigating official, the reviewing official, and any employee or agent of the authority who takes part in investigating, preparing, or presenting a particular case may not, in such case or a factually related case:

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login