

45 C.F.R. § 1149.35

When may an ALJ grant a motion for discovery?

(a) The ALJ may grant a motion for discovery only if he/she finds that the discovery sought—

(1) Is necessary for the expeditious, fair, and reasonable consideration of the issues;

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login