

45 C.F.R. § 1149.41

Are protective orders available?

A party or prospective witness or deponent may file a motion for a protective order with respect to discovery sought by an opposing party or with respect to the hearing, seeking to limit the availability of an individual or disclosure of evidence.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login