

Compliance Today – October 2019 DOJ Antitrust Division names Rene Augustine Acting Deputy Assistant Attorney General for international and policy matters

On July 29, Makan Delrahim, Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Department of Justice's Antitrust Division, announced in a press release that, “current Senior Counsel Rene Augustine will serve as Acting Deputy Assistant Attorney General responsible for the Division’s international and policy matters. Augustine will replace outgoing Deputy Assistant Attorney General Roger Alford, who will return to Notre Dame Law School as a tenured professor of law.”

This document is only available to members. Please log in or become a member.

Become a Member Login