

45 C.F.R. § 1618.5

Duties of the Corporation.

- (a) Whenever the Corporation learns that there is reason to believe that a recipient or a recipient's employee may have committed a violation, the Corporation shall investigate the matter promptly and attempt to resolve it through informal consultation with the recipient. Such actions may be limited to determining if the recipient is sufficiently investigating and resolving the matter itself.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login