I wrote a letter to Pat Kelly, the FBI Integrity and Compliance Officer. He is retiring. Pat's experience in Compliance has been no different than many other compliance professionals I have met over the last 20 years. Implementing compliance programs in the government setting is as difficult and dramatic as in business. He devised a well-thought-out compliance plan and called me about 10 years ago. He asked if some of us from SCCE could take a look at it and comment. We jumped at the chance to help. Rather than send Pat a letter about his retirement, I decided to send it to you, because he would never share it, and this letter should be shared.
