
45 C.F.R. § 2516.500

How does the Corporation review the merits of an application?

- (a) In reviewing the merits of an application submitted to the Corporation under this part, the Corporation evaluates the quality, innovation, replicability, and sustainability of the proposal on the basis of the following criteria: (1) Quality, as indicated by the extent to which—
- (i) The program will provide productive meaningful, educational experiences that incorporate service-learning methods;
 - (ii) The program will meet community needs and involve individuals from diverse backgrounds (including economically disadvantaged youth) who will serve together to explore the root causes of community problems;
 - (iii) The principal leaders of the program will be well qualified for their responsibilities;
