

45 C.F.R. § 2522.820

Will information on individual participants be kept confidential?

- (a) Yes. The Corporation will maintain the confidentiality of information regarding individual participants that is acquired for the purpose of the evaluations described in § 2522.540. The Corporation will disclose individual participant information only with the prior written consent of the participant. However, the Corporation may disclose aggregate participant information.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login