

45 C.F.R. § 2544.130

How will the Corporation determine whether to solicit or accept a donation?

- (a) The Corporation will solicit and accept a donation only for the purpose of furthering the mission and goals of the Corporation.
- (b) In order to be accepted, the donation must be economically advantageous to the Corporation, considering foreseeable expenditures for matters such as storage, transportation, maintenance, and distribution.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login