

45 C.F.R. § 2550.30

How does a State decide whether to establish a State commission or an alternative administrative entity?

- (a) Although each State's chief executive officer has the authority to select an administrative option, the Corporation strongly encourages States to establish State Commissions which meet the requirements in this part as quickly as possible. The requirements for State Commissions were established to try to create informed and effective entities.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login