

45 C.F.R. § 702.7

Counsel.

- (a) Persons compelled to appear in person before the Commission and any witness appearing at a public session of the Commission will be accorded the right to be accompanied and advised by counsel, who will have the right to subject their clients to reasonable examination, make objections on the record, and briefly argue the basis for such objections.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login