

42 C.F.R. § 136.11

Services available.

- (a) Type of services that may be available. Services for the Indian community served by the local facilities and program may include hospital and medical care, dental care, public health nursing and preventive care (including immunizations), and health examination of special groups such as school children.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login